INTERNATIONAL YOUTH DAY

Young people are on the frontlines of the struggle to build a better future for all. The youth is the hope of our future. We are celebrating all the young at heart, vibrant in mind, and beautiful youths all over the world. The youth are the youthful firearms of the nation who will convey the new changes. Being young is, ultimately, facing challenges and creating or recreating a space for future full development.

Young people not only represent the future of our country, we are one of society's main agents of change and progress. We have a great effect on economic development too. Young people are the cornerstone of society and represent a generational renewal.
